An Invitation to an Eligible Employee is personal to the Eligible Employee and is not transferable.

3.5 Invitations not to be issued in breach of law

An Invitation will not be issued if its issue or acceptance would breach or result in a breach of law, the Listing Rules or the Constitution, or a condition of an Authorisation on which the Company is relying or proposing to rely.

3.6 Terms of Invitation prevail over the Plan Rules

To the extent there is an inconsistency between the terms and conditions specified in an Invitation and the Plan Rules, the terms and conditions in the Invitation prevail to the extent of the inconsistency. Subject to the preceding sentence, the Invitation and the Plan Rules are to be read and construed together.

4. APPLICATION AND ACCEPTANCE

4.1 Requirements for participation

- (a) An Application to participate in the Plan must be made by an Eligible Employee and received by or on behalf of the Company in accordance with the instructions which accompany the Invitation or in any other way that the Board determines from time to time.
- (b) The Board may accept or reject any Application in its absolute discretion, without providing any reason.
- (c) If a person ceases to satisfy eligibility requirements under rule 3 (including by operation of rule 3.1(d)), that person is no longer entitled to participate in the Plan.

4.2 Effect of acceptance of Application

- (a) By applying to participate in the Plan, the Eligible Employee agrees to be bound by the Plan Rules and to participate in the Plan in accordance with its terms.
- (b) By becoming a Participant, the Participant appoints the Company and each Nominated Company Representative as defined in sub-paragraph 4.2(c) below (each an Attorney) jointly and severally as the Participant's attorney to do, for and on behalf of the Participant and in the Participant's or the Attorney's name, anything which the Company considers necessary or desirable to facilitate or accept a delivery of Shares under the Plan, including (without limitation) to execute an application for Shares, or a transfer of Shares (as transferee), on behalf of the Participant. The appointment under this rule cannot be revoked by the Participant.
- (c) Each of the following persons is a Nominated Company Representative under the Plan Rules:
 - (i) a director of the Company;
 - (ii) a company secretary of the Company; or
 - (iii) any other person whom the Board nominates from time to time to be a Nominated Company Representative for the purposes of the Plan Rules. The Board may nominate a person by reference to their position, office or title, in which case the person who holds that position, office or title from time to time will be a Nominated Company Representative under this sub-paragraph (iii). A person may be a Nominated Company Representative even if they are not an officer or employee of the Company.

5. CONTRIBUTIONS

- (a) Subject to the Participant's Invitation and the Plan Rules:
 - (i) the Participant may nominate the annual amount he or she wishes to contribute for the acquisition of Acquired Shares during the Plan Year; and
 - (ii) the Contribution Amount will then be deducted from the Participant's net (after tax) salary and wages in instalments during the Plan Year by payroll deduction as set out in the Invitation, unless:
 - A. the Invitation states that the Participant may pay the Contribution Amount in full as a lump sum and the Participant does so in accordance with the instructions in the Invitation; or
 - B. alternative arrangements are agreed between the Participant and the Company (for example, where applicable law or policy prohibits payroll deductions).
- (b) By participating in the Plan, each Participant agrees to the deductions referred to in subparagraph (a)(ii).
- (c) Contributions will be held by the Company or its nominee for the acquisition of Shares under the Plan for the corresponding contributing Participants. The Company may (and if required by applicable law (including any relevant Authorisation such as, for Participants based in Australia, ASIC Class Order [CO 14/1000]), will) cause contributions of a Participant which are to be used but have not yet been used to acquire Shares to be held by or on behalf of the Company or another Group Company on trust for contributing Participants, in an account with an Australian ADI that is used solely in connection with employee incentive schemes of the Company or another Group Company.

- (d) Subject to applicable law (including any relevant Authorisation) Participants will not have any entitlement to any interest or other benefit earned on contributions made by them under or in connection with the Plan or an Invitation. Interest or other benefits earned on the contributions may be used by the Company for the purpose of paying any expenses associated with the operation of the Plan.

6. ACQUIRED SHARES

6.1 Acquisition of Acquired Shares for Participants

- (a) The contributions of Participants made during a Quarter will be aggregated and used for and applied towards the acquisition of Acquired Shares for the corresponding contributing Participants. To this end contributions of Participants may be paid to a third party (such as a Plan Trustee or a broker) to enable Acquired Shares to be acquired for the respective Participants. The Acquired Shares are to be acquired as soon as practicable (taking into account any legal restrictions and restrictions in the Securities Trading Policy) after the end of the Quarter.
- (b) Acquired Shares to be acquired for Participants may be:
 - (i) new Shares issued by the Company; or
 - (ii) existing Shares purchased for a Participant or Participants in general, whether on ASX or otherwise, as determined by the Board (including as to timing) from time to time in its absolute discretion.
- (c) Subject to the Invitation issued to a Participant:
 - (i) if the Board does not determine otherwise for a Quarter, Acquired Shares will be purchased on ASX at the prevailing market price of the Company's Shares at the time of purchase, and the number of Acquired Shares acquired for each relevant Participant will be calculated based on the average price paid for the Acquired Shares purchased and the amount contributed by the relevant Participant for the Quarter, rounded down to the nearest whole number of Shares;
 - (ii) if the Board determines that Acquired Shares are to be new Shares issued by the Company, the issue price for the Acquired Shares is to be equal to the volume weighted average market price (within the meaning of the Listing Rules) of a Share calculated over the 20 trading days up to and including the date on which the Shares are issued.
- (d) For the purpose of the Plan, where the Participant pays the Contribution Amount for the Plan Year in full as a lump sum in accordance with the instructions in the Invitation, subject to the Invitation issued to the Participant, the Participant is then taken to have contributed the Contribution Amount on the last day of the Quarter in which the lump sum is paid.

6.2 Delivery and holding of Acquired Shares

- (a) The Board may choose from time to time the manner in which Shares are to be acquired for Participants. The entitlement of a Participant under the Plan (to have a Share acquired for him or her under the Plan) is satisfied if:
 - (i) the Share is issued to or for the benefit of the Participant; or
 - (ii) the Share is transferred to or for the benefit of the Participant; or
 - (iii) the Company procures that the Share is held by a person nominated by the Company for and on behalf of the Participant, as the Board determines in its absolute discretion.

- (b) The Board may determine from time to time how Acquired Shares must be held during the Qualification Period by a Participant in order for the Participant to become entitled to any Matching Shares.
- (c) Without limiting subparagraph (b), the Board may (but is not obliged to) determine that Acquired Shares acquired by the Plan Trustee must be held throughout the Qualification Period by the Plan Trustee, in order for the Participant to become entitled to any Matching Shares.

6.3 Legal override

- (a) Despite any other rule of this Plan, Acquired Shares will not be acquired for a Participant if the Board is of the opinion that acquiring the Acquired Shares for the Participant would contravene the Plan, the Constitution, the Listing Rules, an Authorisation (including any condition of an Authorisation on which the Company is relying or proposes to rely) or any law (including any law of a jurisdiction in which the Participant resides or is located).
- (b) If pursuant to this rule 6.3 Acquired Shares are not acquired for the Participant in accordance with rule 6 for a Quarter then, subject to the Invitation issued to the Participant, the Company must ensure that the Participant's contributions for the Quarter are repaid (or the amount taken to be contributed by the Participant for the Quarter under rule 6.1(d) is repaid) to the Participant, without interest or any other entitlement promptly thereafter. This payment will be in full satisfaction of the entitlement of the Participant to the Acquired Shares and will fully discharge the obligation to acquire the Acquired Shares for the Participant.

7. MATCHED SHARES

7.1 Matched Share entitlement

- (a) Subject to rules 6.2(b), 8.1(b), 8.1(d) and 13 and the Participant's Invitation, subject to and on satisfaction of the Matching Conditions, a Participant becomes entitled to be delivered Matched Shares on the terms set out in the Invitation, as determined by the Board in its absolute discretion.
- (b) Unless the Board determines otherwise, a Participant is not entitled to delivery of a Matched Share prior to satisfaction of the Matching Conditions and will only become entitled to rights attaching to the Matched Shares from the Allocation Date.

7.2 Qualification Period

- (a) The Qualification Period is the period specified as such in the Invitation.
- (b) The Board may (but is not obliged to) extend the last date of the Qualification Period for a Participant if that Participant would, but for the extension, be prohibited from dealing in Shares pursuant to the Securities Trading Policy. The last date of the Qualification Period must not be extended beyond the first practicable date after the Participant ceases to be prohibited from dealing in Shares pursuant to the Securities Trading Policy.

7.3 Satisfaction of entitlement to Matched Shares

Where a Participant becomes entitled to Matched Shares, the entitlement of the Participant to the Matched Shares is to be satisfied as soon as practicable (taking into account any legal restrictions and restrictions in the Securities Trading Policy) after the end of the Qualification Period by the Company:

- (a) issuing a Share to the Participant; or
 - (b) causing a Share to be transferred to the Participant; or
 - (c) procuring the holding of a Share by a Plan Trustee for and on behalf of the Participant,
- as the Board determines in its absolute discretion.

7.4 Legal override

- (a) Despite any other rule of this Plan, Matched Shares must not be delivered to a Participant if the Board is of the opinion that delivering the Matched Shares would contravene the Plan, the Constitution, the Listing Rules, an Authorisation (including any condition of an Authorisation on which the Company is relying or proposes to rely) or any law (including any law of a jurisdiction in which the Participant resides or is located).

- (b) If pursuant to this rule 7.4 Matched Shares are not delivered to a Participant in accordance with rule 7 then, subject to the Invitation issued to the Participant, the Company must ensure that the Participant is paid a sum (such payment including any accumulated interest (if any), less any tax) equal to the product of the number of Matched Shares that, but for this rule 7.4, would be delivered to the Participant multiplied by the volume weighted average market price (within the meaning of the Listing Rules) of a Share calculated over the 20 trading days before the last day of the Qualification Period. This payment will be in full satisfaction of the entitlement of the Participant to the Matched Shares and will fully discharge the obligation to deliver the Matched Shares to the Participant.

8. RESTRICTION ON PURCHASE AND DISPOSAL OF SHARES

8.1 Restriction period and other conditions

- (a) The Board may determine that a restriction period or other conditions will apply to some or all of the Acquired Shares and/or Matched Shares, and may determine the terms and conditions applying to any such restriction period or other conditions. Any such restriction period or other conditions will be set out in the Invitation.
- (b) If the Board determines that a restriction period applies, a Participant must not Dispose of or otherwise deal, or purport to deal, in any Acquired Shares and/or Matched Shares which are subject to a restriction period otherwise than in accordance with any process determined by the Board for the withdrawal of Shares from the Plan.
- (c) If the Board determines that no restriction period applies, or does not impose a restriction period, in respect of Acquired Shares and/or Matched Shares, a Participant may deal in those Shares subject to rule 8.1(d) and the Securities Trading Policy.
- (d) If the Board determines that any other condition applies in accordance with rule 8.1(a), the Participant must also satisfy that condition.

8.2 Enforcement of restriction period

The Company may implement any procedure it considers appropriate to restrict a Participant from dealing in any Shares allocated to or on behalf of a Participant for as long as those Shares are subject to a restriction period.

9. NOTIFICATION OF ALLOCATION OF SHARES

The Company will notify, or will cause a representative or agent to notify on behalf of the Company, each Participant as soon as practicable after Acquired Shares are acquired for and transferred to the Participant or Matched Shares are delivered to the Participant.

10. RANKING AND LISTING OF SHARES

If new Shares are issued under the Plan:

- (a) the Shares will from their date of issue rank equally with all other issued Shares; and
- (b) the Company will apply for quotation on ASX of the Shares in accordance with the Listing Rules.

11. SHAREHOLDER ENTITLEMENTS

11.1 Voting

A Participant may exercise voting rights attaching to:

- (a) Acquired Shares acquired for him or her, from their Purchase Date.
- (b) Matched Shares delivered to him or her, from their Allocation Date.

11.2 Dividends

A Participant will be entitled to all dividends and other distributions paid on Acquired Shares acquired for the Participant or Matched Shares delivered to the Participant where the record date for the dividend or other distribution occurs on or after the Purchase Date of the Acquired Shares or the Allocation Date of the Matched Shares, as the case may be.

11.3 Shares held by Plan Trustee for Participants

For so long as Acquired Shares or Matched Shares are held by a Plan Trustee for a Participant, until they are transferred to a Participant, the Participant will have an absolute and unconditional present entitlement to such Shares as against the Plan Trustee, including the right:

- (a) to exercise or direct the Plan Trustee to exercise on their behalf, any voting rights attaching to the Shares; and
- (b) to receive income and other benefits deriving from the Shares, including dividends and distributions; and
- (c) subject to rule 8 and the Securities Trading Policy, to call for a transfer of the Shares, as from the date of acquisition of the Acquired Shares or the Allocation Date of the Matched Shares, as the case may be.

11.4 Transfers of Shares to Participants

- (a) Where Matched Shares have been delivered to a Participant and the Plan Trustee holds for the Participant the Matched Shares, or any of the Acquired Shares in relation to which the Matched Shares were delivered, the Plan Trustee must transfer the Matched Shares and Acquired Shares to the Participant.
- (b) Where:
 - (i) a Participant has ceased to be a Group Employee; or
 - (ii) the Plan is terminated or suspended, and Shares are held by a Plan Trustee for the Participant, the Plan Trustee must transfer the Shares to the Participant.
- (c) The Participant must accept transfers of Acquired Shares or Matched Shares to it by the Plan Trustee.

12. OPT-OUT PROVISIONS

- (a) Any Participant may by giving a Withdrawal Notice to the Company or as otherwise provided in the Invitation discontinue his or her participation in the Plan (Withdrawn Participant).
- (b) Upon receipt of a Withdrawal Notice from a Participant the Company will do all things necessary to ensure that the discontinuance takes effect no more than 45 days after the date on which the Withdrawal Notice is given.
